December 2024

YOUR HOME IS MORTGAGE FREE!

Dear Chosen One: Let the Peace of God reign in your life. I bring you words of hope! “The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a Son, and they will call Him Immanuel—which means ‘God with us’” (Matthew 1:23.) The Word of God says, don’t worry about your life, where you will live, what you will eat and what kind of clothes you will wear. However, when you seek first the Kingdom of God, God will take care of all your needs (Matthew 6:25-34.) God is with us.

The same God who created the Universe is going to provide for all your needs according to His great richness. (Philippians 4:19.) I want you to know even if the world is against you, God is with you, so don’t worry or get discouraged about those seen or unseen obstacles (Romans 8:31.)

We are approaching the end of the year 2024. This year will be remembered for its ups and downs. For some people it was the best year of their lives. For example: Souls were saved, prayers were answered, goals were accomplished, babies were born, couples were united in holy matrimony, families were restored, and many other blessings took place.

On the other hand, many people felt that this year was terrible because they lost their homes, jobs, personal assets, freedom, and loved ones. These crises caused some of them to become frustrated and hopeless. Nevertheless, God has spared their lives to see another year in spite of their troubles.

As we move forward into the new year, let us learn from some of our mistakes and take heed to the ungodliness that caused many others to fall from grace. Oftentimes people mistake God’s silence for His approval. God is merciful and often He is giving those who are still living in sin and a reckless lifestyle the chance to repent and accept His grace.

Some people are still putting their trust in people, places and material things instead of God their Creator. The spirit of greed and covetousness has convinced many people that their wealth is measured by the amount of money and material things they possess. However, others have concluded that it doesn’t matter what they have—without God in their life, they are poor, miserable, and empty.

The Bible says, “A man’s life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions” (Luke 12:15.) Sin has caused many to go farther than they intended, spend more than they were earning and stay longer than they anticipated.

During this Christmas Season, many individuals will spend their money buying things that they don’t need or cannot afford. Telemarketers have deceived many into buying things they cannot take with them into eternity.

For example, homes, cars, jewels, boats, planes, etc. The home you are paying the mortgage on, you will not be able to reside in it in heaven. You are overworking to make car payments and insurance for a car you cannot drive in eternity. We are aliens in this world. The Bible says, “For we brought nothing in this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out” And having food and clothing, with these we shall be content” (1 Timothy 6:7-8.)

CELEBRATE THIS CHRISTMAS BY LOVING, GIVING, CARING, AND...

Here is a word of HOPE for you! Even if you lose everything in this world, God still has a debt free home waiting for you in heaven. I clearly understand that in order for you to inherit that home you will have to exit the earth, and most people are not ready to take that journey. Why? Many people are not spiritually prepared to live in that heavenly home that Jesus went to prepare for them. “And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also” (John 14:3.) Plus, in spite of the home you have in heaven, God still wants you to live an abundant life on earth.

As children of God, we should be lenders and not borrowers, and we should be living our best life but not at the expense of neglecting our relationship with God or selling our souls to the devil. Some of the biggest dilemmas we are facing in our society today—is the lack of reverence for God, self-respect, and greed. Some people will look at you directly in the eyes and sell you false hope. Even government officials will look through the lens of cameras and lie to gain people’s trust. Modest apparel is replaced with revealing clothes. Sadly, I have to include those spiritual leaders, televangelists and false prophets, those the Bible describes as sheep in wolves’ clothing. These individuals are deceiving God’s people for their own financial gain.

“But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come. For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away!” (2 Timothy 3:1-5.)

God doesn’t want us to choose wealth or material things over the most essential things in life such as spending quality time with family and loved ones, going to church, reading our Bibles, interceding for others, giving to the underprivileged and witnessing to unbelievers. People of God, no amount of money can compensate or replace these precious moments and memories. Trust me, it is better to live in love and unity without money than to be rich, miserable and hopeless. There is hope for those who put their trust in God.

Whether you have money or not, God’s promises are yes and amen. Don’t get discouraged. Your best life is ahead of you. Those tests, trials, and tribulations that you went through were not in vain. Today, you are better prepared, and your faith has been strength for your next promotion. Jesus has saved the best for last. At the wedding in Cana, Jesus turned water into wine. That was the best wine, and He saved it for last. (John 2:1-11.) When Lazarus was sick, Mary and Martha sent a message for Jesus to come and heal their sick brother. Jesus never came until Lazarus was dead. Why? He wanted Lazarus to have a greater testimony. Lazarus was resurrected and God got the glory. (John 11:1-44.) Jesus is looking to give you a greater testimony too!

As you say goodbye to this year, I want you to start declaring and proclaiming what you want your future to look like. Remember life and death are in the words you speak. You have the power to shape your future by saying positive words over your life, over your children, your grandchildren, your home, and wherever you go.

Start confessing that you are strong, healthy, debt free, victorious, prosperous; lovable, caring, more than a conqueror, having no lack, qualified for the promotion or pay increase; blessed, highly favored and empowered to prosper. These are God’s promises for your life. God is faithful, and He said that He will not withhold anything good from you.

This is a word of HOPE to encourage those who have encountered some major setbacks, lost loved ones, homes, or went through any kind of misfortunes this year. Say goodbye as that season is over. The best is yet to come! BLESSINGS ARE ON THE WAY! JESUS IS THE REASON FOR THE SEASON!
