IT'S RESURRECTION TIME! JESUS IS RISEN!

Dear Chosen One, Today, I greet you in Jesus' Resurrection Power! Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, is ALIVE. He is not a distant memory, not a historical figure confined to the pages of history—He is risen, reigning, and actively moving in the lives of His people.

“...Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; He has risen! Remember how He told you, while He was still with you in Galilee: ‘The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.’” (Luke 24:5–8)

The story of Jesus' birth, death, burial, and resurrection is recorded in the four Gospels of the Bible: Gospel of Matthew, Gospel of Mark, Gospel of Luke, and Gospel of John. In Matthew, Jesus is revealed as the Messiah and King—the promised One who came to be our Sacrificial Lamb. In Mark, He is the Son of God, a Servant full of compassion and power. In Luke, He is the Great Physician and Teacher, moving among the people, healing the sick, restoring the broken, and delivering those who were oppressed. In John, He is the Word made flesh, dwelling among humanity, full of grace and truth.

According to some theological teachings, the Bible can be described as “Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth.” Therefore, I encourage you—take time to read it, meditate on it, and allow it to transform your life. No one should journey through life without knowing who Jesus is and what He has done to save us from eternal separation and destruction. His sacrifice was intentional, His suffering was purposeful, and His resurrection was victorious.

Some people are still denying that Jesus' resurrection never happened. Jesus was in the grave for three days—a place of darkness, silence, isolation, and what appeared to be finality. It was a place where His enemies believed they had won, where the devil thought the mission had failed. But they were wrong. What looked like defeat was only preparation for divine victory. Jesus conquered death and came out of the grave ALIVE—triumphant, glorified, and unstoppable.

If you are a child of God and have a personal relationship with Jesus, you too can defeat your enemies, overcome spiritual death, and spend eternity in heaven with Him. There is no place you can go where God cannot reach you. There is no pit so deep that His love cannot rescue you. There is no night so dark that His light cannot shine through.

During this Resurrection Season, you may find yourself in a situation similar to Jesus. You may be falsely accused of something you did not do. You may be rejected, misunderstood, or betrayed. People may attempt to smear your reputation, deny your identity, or bury you under lies and criticism. You may feel as if you have hit “rock bottom.” But do not lose heart—your resurrection time is coming.

Jesus stayed silent before His accusers. He endured the cross, despised the shame, and trusted His Father. He conquered death and came out of the grave alive—and you can rise too. Whenever you find yourself in a no-way-out situation, with your back against the wall or flat on your back, remember what the Word says: “Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near.” (Luke 21:28)

Don't Look For The Living Among The Dead!

When they buried Jesus, He was laid on His back, His face toward heaven—looking to His Father. At the Father's appointed time and command, Jesus rose triumphantly and made a public display of His resurrection for all to see. He gave His enemies, the doubters, and the devil something to talk about. What was meant to silence Him became the greatest testimony in history.

Before they buried Him, they wrapped Jesus in linen cloth—a natural fabric. Yet nothing could prevent Him from coming out of that grave. It was His appointed time. The grave could not hold Him. The stone could not block Him. The bindings could not restrain Him. And when He rose, He left behind everything they used to confine Him. In the same way, when God brings you out, you will not carry the grave clothes of your past into your future.

After His resurrection, Jesus asked Mary, “Why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?” (John 20:15). Though He stood before her in human form, He possessed supernatural power. He later appeared to His disciples despite locked doors, comforting them in their fear and reminding them that peace still belonged to them.

It is time to come out of your grave.

You have endured hardship, false accusations, setbacks, trauma, delays, denials, opposition, and unforeseen trials. You have fought battles that others never saw. I am here to remind you that your Resurrection Season is here. God is fighting your battles, turning your mourning into joy, and bringing you out victoriously. What tried to break you will instead build you. What tried to bury you will instead plant you for greater fruit.

When you come out of your grave—that situation—there are some things and some people you must leave behind. Old mindsets, ungodly behaviors, limited thinking, negative conversations, fear, doubt, and hopelessness cannot go with you into your next season. Some relationships that thrived in your brokenness cannot survive your healing. Be wise. Do everything in love. Guard your heart. Do not allow hatred or bitterness to take root. Do not give the devil a foothold. Forgive, release, and move forward in freedom.

To my dear family and friends: Jesus is calling you. He desires a real and personal relationship with you. If you do not yet know Him intimately, now is the time. Stop rehearsing past failures, disappointments, rejections, financial setbacks, lack, injustice, and pain. Those chapters do not define your destiny. Your past may explain you, but it does not own you.

During this month, I urge you to detach yourself from anything or anyone who has prevented you from living a purposeful life and doing the will of God. This is your season to experience God's divine favor and fullness. Step boldly into what He has prepared for you. Live intentionally. Walk confidently. And never forget to give God the glory and praise for His goodness and mercy.

Allow me to pray and speak Prophetic Words over your life.

In the Name of Jesus and by the power of the Holy Spirit, I command every demonic force to cease its operation in your life. I pull down strongholds that have deprived you of purpose and productivity. I break generational curses that have operated in your family line. I come against untimely death, sickness, fear, doubt, confusion, witchcraft, and every form of idolatry. I break financial strongholds that have tied up your resources in debt and lack. I rebuke the devourer that has consumed your increase, and I apply the Blood of Jesus over every area of your life. I bind every wicked spirit and cancel every plan of the enemy.

Today, I declare life in every dead situation. I speak divine order over your home, your mind, your relationships, your career, and your ministry. In the Name of Jesus, I call forth peace and stability in your environment. I call forth doors to open in your favor. May the Holy Spirit saturate you with fresh anointing from the crown of your head to the soles of your feet.

You will sit at the table of abundance and partake of the God's blessings.

Your Resurrection has begun!
